

DUKE GALT

Mrs. Mary Jane Crook Duke, wife of J. O. Duke of Heber and warden, died March 2, 1911, after a lingering illness, the first of death being due to complications.

She was the daughter of John and Mary Galt, pioneers of Wasatch county. Mrs. Duke was born May 23, 1829, and from the time she was old enough she has always been an energetic Church worker, holding many offices of responsibility in the auxiliary organizations. She was secretary of the Heber West ward Primary and later in the Relief Society of the Heber West ward and many other positions of trust in the several wards where she resided. In her teens she contracted rheumatism which left her with a weak heart, causing many years of suffering and finally being the indirect cause of death. Through all her suffering she was patient and cheerful, always "feeling fine" when inquiring friends asked as to her condition. She resided with her family in Heber during her early married life, moving to Ferry in 1870, where the family remained until 1911. They went to the Tintin band in the early days of the opening of the reservation, moving back to Heber in 1910, where the family has since resided. The surviving members are as follows: The husband, Jonathan O. Duke, and children, John C. Duke, Merrill and Grant. Also 11 grand children: Dale C. Ellen and Don C. Jr. The surviving brothers and sisters are John W. Heber O. Thomas H. and Frederick Crook of Heber and Mrs. Margaret Callender of Delta, Utah.

Funeral services were held in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle on Wednesday afternoon with Bishop Walter Montgomery presiding. The opening prayer was offered by John T. Gies and the benediction by Pres. H. Clay Cummings. The speakers were David W. Hocken, Frederick W. Gies, Joseph A. Hasbrouck, Ralph F. Nissen and closing remarks by Bishop Montgomery. Station numbers were numbered as follows: Quartette, "Through Deepening Trials Throng Your Way," and "Sister, Thou wert Mild and Lovely," by Frank S. Biggs, Frank W. Hardy, Mrs. Maybell Moulton and Mrs. Arden Vance, accompanied by Mrs. Leanne Lister; Vocal Solo, "Mother Me Grieve," by Mrs. Desmar Dolese, Dore, "Beyond Trouble," by Mrs. Maybell Moulton and Frank Eggeeson.

Interment was in the family lot in the Heber City cemetery. Those from out-of-town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Buckley and son Harry, Mrs. Hannah Clements and son of Salt Lake City and the following from Ferry—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Gies, Mrs. Joseph F. Gies, George G. Charles and Geo. Duke, Mr. Heber Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Nels "B." Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tenny and other relatives and friends, deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

Joseph Fielding Smith and his family. Mr. Smith, a nephew of Joseph Smith, first prophet of Mormonism, was President of the Mormon Church. He died November 19, in his 80th year. He was survived by 5 wives, 43 children and 92 grandchildren.

UINTA RANCHER KILLERS PUT IN STATE PRISON

Sheriff Lyle Richardson of Uinta county arrived in Salt Lake Monday evening with Nellie Trujillo, Elnora Van, Ernest Trujillo and Murray Harris, convicted of the murder of Thomas Rhodes, Farm Creek rancher, Sept. 26, who were placed in the state prison. Nellie Trujillo and Elnora Van are sentences of 10 years to life, while the two men were sentenced to life imprisonment. The prisoners were brought from Vernal to Price by automobile and to Salt Lake by rail.
